Kathy's House Welcomes Four New Board Members

MILWAUKEE (May 1, 2017) - Kathy's House, a hospital guest house located in Wauwatosa area, announces the appointment of four new board members: Jack Anick from Wauwatosa, Randall Hoth from Milwaukee, Mark Filla from Germantown and Mona Theobald from Brookfield.

Jack Anick is the founder of Anick & Associates, an accounting firm specializing in accounting and management services for non-profit organizations. Anick & Associates currently serves 90 non-profits across the United States and internationally. Anick brings to Kathy's House his first-hand knowledge of nonprofit management. He attends many Board Meetings, Finance Committee Meetings and Investment/Endowment Committee Meetings throughout the country. He is instrumental in initial development of about 30 non-profits a year.

Mark Filla has been a financial advisor for the past 15 years in the Greater Milwaukee Area and is currently working at Ameriprise Financial. He specializes in financial planning, asset management, investment allocation and cash flow analysis. He has earned the Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA) Designation and the Applied Behavior Finance Certificate.

Randall Hoth is the recently retired president and CEO of Better Business Bureau (BBB) Serving Wisconsin. He has held leadership and board positions on a local Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Managers of the YMCA, the Milwaukee Repertory Theater, The Milwaukee Art Museum and others. At the BBB, he worked expanding the awareness of good business practices with businesses, company employees and consumers in the Greater Milwaukee area. Hoth is Kathy Vogel Kuttner, the founder of Kathy's house, uncle and has been involved in Kathy's House since its inception in 2001.

Mona Theobald is the General Manager of Customer Experience and Advocacy for GE Healthcare's U.S. and Canada region. Previously, she was the VP & General Manager for the Western U.S. and Canada. She's also held roles in Magnetic Resonance and Mammography

Business and led the creation of the first Women's Imaging Sales and Marketing Organization. Currently she is an active member and leader of the GE Women's Network and is on the leadership team for GE Healthcare's Women's Network. She currently works in the Greater Milwaukee area.

"We are pleased to have the outstanding talents of these four individuals we develop a premier hospital guest house serving families facing critical health care challenges," said Glen Van Fossen (Mequon), Chair of the Board of Directors. "They will make a positive impact as we prepare to build a new house."

Kathy's House is here for families when they need it the most, during medical crisis. Since 2001, we've helped more than 16,000 out-of-town patients and families to access medical care in Milwaukee. Kathy's House keep families together by providing affordable lodging and caring support. Research has found that patients who have family nearby have better outcomes. Kathy's House accepts referrals from all Milwaukee area hospitals, for patients of all ages.
